“ Played football with Joe on Saint Edmond's team. Against Saint Rita's I asked him to throw a few passes my way. He did and I scored a touch down. We beat them 63 to 0. Joe was a good quarterback. Later he played for the neighborhood team. I played for the other neighborhood team. Good times growing up in South Philly in the 50's and 60's. Rest in peace Joe. Perhaps will play again on the same team in the Father's Kingdom.

“ I will always remember Joe's beautiful smile! Even when this disease wrecked havoc with Joe's mind and body, you could always look forward to his tremendous smile. I am glad Joe is finally at peace. My sympathies to Linda and the boys.
