“ *Dear Dillenschneider family:
I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Death is never easy. When Lazarus died, Jesus “groaned in the spirit and became troubled,” and shortly afterward he “gave way to tears.” (John 11:33, 35) So, when someone we love dies, it does not show weakness to cry. In the future God promises to wipe out every tear from our eyes, because death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore which is found in the Bible at Revelation 21:4. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.*
