

Ann P. Dunlop

November 15, 1911 - July 22, 2010

Ann Pricilla Dunlop was born in Woodbury, N.J., November 15, 1911. She was the daughter of Louise and Richard Walker. Two Brothers, Fredy and George preceded her in death. She attended Woodbury Schools and Spurlock School of Music in Philadelphia. In 1930 Ann moved to Detroit to live with an aunt, Helen Davis. She attended Denby High and a private cake decorating school. She married Solomon T. Dunlop, father of her daughter, Barbara. Ann loved to cook and do gardening. She had a passion for flowers. Ann leaves to cherish her memories cousins, Greta Verlander, Barry Verlander and family, Bonnie Hall and family, Roberta Smith, Gena Davis, Patzy Johnson, Daryl Smith and family, Yvette Usher and family, Brian Walker and family and cousin Susan Shephard and good friends Johnella Wells and BeBe Mitchell.

Her favorite saying was, "OK. I'm smack, dab in the middle," when she was being positioned in bed by her care giver.

Relative and Friends are invited to attend a memorial service Saturday, July 31st, 11am at Mt. Zion Wesley UMC, 1470 Glassbor Rd., Wenonah, NJ.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Mt. Zion Wesley Building Fund, 1470 Glassboro Rd., Deptford, NJ 08096.
