

Ann C. Fletcher-Stotsenburg

December 28, 1967 - August 24, 2020

Ann “Annie” “Zelda” “Rino” “Fletch” C. Fletcher-Stotsenburg (nee Richards) on August 24, 2020 of Deptford. Age 52. Loving wife of William A. Stotsenburg “Wimp”. Beloved mother of Kayla Fletcher and Melissa Stotsenburg. Sister of Lisa, Tommy, Billy and the late Lillian. Devoted grandmother of Joe Joe and Cecilia.

She was the kind of person that loved making memories with friends and family— oftentimes it was HER that made the memory stand out, always reminding us the importance of being together and having fun while we’re alive. Ann had a heart as big and wonderful as her personality. She was great at reading a room and including anyone who looked left out, and she always knew what to say according to the circumstances. Ann gave us the encouragement to reach for our dreams and the needed kick in the rear to keep us on the right track. If service to others and family means anything, and according to the gatekeeper they absolutely do, Ann scored a lot of points and was an inspirational example of how to be there for those in need— that’s why she became the center and home for unconditional love and family for so many of us.

Ann kept memories with loved ones close to her heart and she could recount stories with everyone like it just happened yesterday. She was a force to be reckoned, fiercely protective, compassionate, and spirited woman. Ann could bring anyone to life and get them to come out of their shell, showed them how to be free and full of happiness—and she did it with her witty sense of humor and fun-loving persistence to make people smile and laugh. She would want us all to fill the pain in our hearts with gratitude that we are alive and not squander our time being depressed. So, let’s take her lead and make memories that will last forever with those we love.

Ann always put her family first and made it a priority to get out and see and do fun things, she loved her daughters Kayla, Melissa, and Katelyne, son Anthony, and her grandkids, Joe Joe and Cecilia more than anything—there was no limit to what she would do for them. Wimpy became the love of her life 23 years ago, and they just celebrated their one-year wedding anniversary. She is survived by many nieces and nephews, an army of cousins, and her siblings Lisa, Tommy, and Billy. Ann is joining her late sister Lillian, and late mother and father Lillian Marion Ewing and “Jack” Thomas John Richards.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, September 19, 2020 at 2pm at the Stotsenburg Home.

Arrangements by BOUCHER FUNERAL HOME, Deptford.

“ i cant believe you're actually gone. it will forever feel like a dream to me. you were gone way way way too soon. i cant hug or kiss you one last time. i know you would hate the fact that i'm sitting around crying about you. you always let people know you wanted them to party when you're gone. celebrate your life. i cant bring myself to do anything. give me some time and i will fulfill your wishes. i'm trying to stay strong for the family. i'm trying. i really am. it's so hard to do it without you here to guide me and teach me new things. save me a spot. talk to nan for me. show her how big i got. we're all trying our best to stay strong. i miss you forever and always. until i see you again. now i have the most beautiful angel watching over me as i enter high school and later in life <3. i love you forever and always.

“ Lester, I can't tell you how sorry I am about the loss of your dear and precious niece, Ann. I have been praying for your healing. Reading her obituary, I can see what a terrible loss this is for your family and for everyone she knew. VetAbility was so happy to have her volunteer at the luncheons when she could. She will be very missed. May God hold her in the palm of his hand when she enters the gates of Heaven.

My deepest and sincere condolences to the entire 🧑🏻‍🧑🏻 Family. I was honor to meet Annie thru her uncle Lester. Annie was so kind and loving. She was sunshine to all the Veterans who attended the Vetability resource meetings at the VFW. Annie planted kindness and love in her daily journey. May her memories and God give you the strength to one day do a tribute in her honor. Thankful to Lester who loved her like a daughter for introducing her to so many veterans who she helped with her service, laughter and heart ❤️. 🙏

“ Most of my memories are from childhood our growing up years when Annie lived Croydon with the Richards family sleepover were often also dinner's the weekend garage parties thrown by her brother ,mother & father would have their Aunts Uncles brother and sister, cousins & so on... into the morning hours always would be singing "On the way to Cape May" always seems to come up.. in the mornings with me in kitchen before school at her house with her mother having the stove running and drinking her tea. The name Zelda had come from canoeing and wanted to attract the attention of a couple of guys on the lake also so any flip the canoe acted like we needed help, when asked what our names were she was Zelda and I was Hilda ... little did we know they would stick. We figured we would never see them again. We did. We where together through Growing Up ,dating, baby showers, birthdays weddings childbirth working at The Stables in order to ride the ponies the list goes on.,She was my little buddy... and I her big buddy. We have lost touch through last so many years but would never lose our memories or our growing years ,Good Times, bad times ,fears tears smiles and frowns. She will be missed great woman caring sharing always willing to help. I know till the day she died all I would have to do is call and she would come. I now regret back strain closer contact my sympathy and sadness your family children....

“ How do we say goodbye to Ann Richards Stotsenburg? She was a Wife, Mother, #1 Meemaw, a Sister, a Cousin and a Friend. She was all of this and so much more to so many people. Annie ruled with an iron-fist and a had heart of gold. Lit up every room she entered with her big smile and contagious laugh, she pulled us together when we were down. Always had an open door, food on the infamous kitchen table and a place to lay your head. (Just like Hootananny and the Aunts) Our hearts will be forever broken but we will always smile when we think of her. Please keep Wimp, Kayla, Melissa, Jojo and Cecilia, the Richards and Stotsenburg families in your prayers. Hopefully their cherished memories of our amazing Annie will some how help them heal. 🍀💚Annie.....And until we meet again. 💚🍀

“ Oh, Zel. When I would sneak out, or not come home, or get into trouble, I would go to your door 1st. I would say, on a scale of 1-10 will mom cry and hug me yet or beat my tail? She would say, Coo-coo, go let your mom know you're ok, and yes she will still be mad, lol. You were a mom to my lil brother, stepped in as mom of the groom, and have been his parental anchor since he was a teen. Your laugh was contagious, you really did light up a room, and invite all into your world. I had you walking laps and squatting to go into labor with melissa for my birthday and I forgive you for her being 2 days late lol. Must be one hell of a bike fest up there with so many, especially mom, Tom, and richie. We will love and miss you and tell tales of your life for the rest of ours. Til we meet again, love Coo-coo.
