“ I'm still shocked that she's not here. I just found out. I've known her i believed my entire life. She was my mom best friend but I knew her as my Aunt Ann. Didn't know till I was grown she wasn't blood but that made no difference! I list my step dad 3/24/20 and my mom 8/4/20 and to find out now she left this world also in 2020. I know they are all up in heaven celebrating all the holidays together like all the years past. I love you Aunt Ann !

“ I remember Aunt Ann when she worked at the Airport Hotel and Uncle Tom was an Police officer there. That was in the 60ies. I saw them often as I worked for TWA at the time. All my friends wanted to meet her.

“ Mrs. Kerrigan was a gift to everyone who knew her. She laughed at those who were foolish and quietly cared for the neglected. My deep sympathy goes to the Kerrigan and Burns families and everyone who loved her.
