

Anthony J. Ciambrano, Jr.

February 8, 1954 - July 21, 2021

Anthony J. Ciambrano, Jr. "Tony" on July 21, 2021 of Deptford. Age 67. Loving son of Anthony J. Ciambrano, Sr. and Elizabeth (nee Kelleher) of Deptford. Beloved brother of Diane Supino of Mullica Hill. Devoted uncle of Robert Supino.

Tony was a retired driver for the Courier-Post in Cherry Hill, formerly worked for the Bulletin Newspaper for many years and also owned his own pest control business. He loved and knew everything there was to know about the Phillies. Tony was an avid fisherman and happiest sitting quietly on the shoreline of a lake fishing. He owned and loved corvettes and took pride in detailing his cars to gleaming perfection. He enjoyed cooking, had a green thumb with his house plants and loved to bargain shop at Berlin Mart. He couldn't own enough watches! He couldn't collect enough tiger pictures, lol.

What most people will probably remember about Tony was his incredible sense of humor. He always had a funny comment in any situation. We thought he would be around so much longer but God has something better planned for him.

Services Private at the convenience of the family.

Arrangements by BOUCHER FUNERAL HOME, Deptford.
