“ Dad, I carry a heavy heart now that you’re not here, but I am happy that you’re not suffering anymore. You left me personally with many great memories that I will always cherish. We had a lot of fun together, over 50 years worth of great memories golfing, watching the Phillies, irking each other, and your great sense of humor. But the one thing that always stands out with me, is that you never treated me like your son-in-law, but always as a son. And I will never forget that. You were a great man, and my closest friend. I will never forget you. Fly high in heaven. I Love you Dad.

“ Daddy, You were the bravest and strongest man I have ever known. I witnessed it first hand this past year as you pushed through every single day suffering through your illnesses. You were always my hero and I will love and miss you forever.
Thank you for being my dad.
Love, Linda

“ Ant,
I don't think I will ever forget sitting around the table and listening to your stories from our family's past.....things we were all too young to know or remember were brought to life as only you could tell them. It was a joy to hear you relate them and it is memory I will cherish forever. I can still see you and Babe and Anna singing and scattin in the kitchen as if it were yesterday,
My heart is terribly broken.
Love always,
Carol

“ Daddy,
Sailors pray,
For fair winds and a following sea

The smell of salt in the air,
The feel of their skin as it's touched by the spray

An albatross soaring above,
Dolphins in the ship's wake at play

To witness a work of art that only God can create,
The sunset at the end of day

At night a million stars in the sky,
Safe anchorage in an islands lee

When the time comes to die as for all it must,
To awake in Sailors Heaven where nothing ever rusts

And always there would be,
Fair winds and a following sea

Love always, Toni
