TK will always be very special to me. He was my first nephew and over the years we spent alot of time together. Either playing basketball with Ryan and Tony and my brother Mike, or later years working together. I always leaned on him, he was strong could do the heavy work. He always had a Smile on his face and was easy to laugh. I miss you you T. Uncle Jim “ TK, you felt like an older brother figure to me growing up in Woodbury. You were an amazing athlete and I looked up to you. I'll never forget endless summer days and nights playing basketball and football with you and Ryan. And our championship little league teams. I've tried to never take for granted that I got to grow up with kids who loved sports as much as I did. I'm really sad to hear the news and all my love to the Cullens.

“ The loss of TK will permanently scar my heart. Although I have known TK since he was a young kid and I am being a few years older and the sister to his uncle's wife he always would call me his aunt. My husband and I were so lucky to have TK spend the end of the summer with us this year and he left behind so many memories me and my kids will cherish forever. normally I & the comedian TK beat me to the punch every time. Take it was so funny and his personality was so unique and there is not anyone on this planet like him I guarantee that. For example we bought this home November 2017 and there had been some neighbors that had walk their dog for years who are very quiet to themselves and would walk by never waving or saying a word to me since we moved in. Couple weeks after he came lived with us we were on the porch and I noticed the neighbors starting to wave hello to me and I would wave back and I look over and there was TK talking to them wishing them a good morning. That's happened TWICE! Lol two separate neighbors that lived another development but would walk by my house every week for years and now still wave to me to this day. I remember that day looking over at TJ and said T..do you know them? He said no their your neighbors.” And I just busted out laughing.... just so many instances like that. Even when we were in the store he would make even the crankiest of cashiers smile and laugh every time we were at the store or gas station,... just everyone.

TO you TK: thank you for all the memories and time spent with Jeffrey and Tabby. Even if it was watching Tabatha's most annoying videos just because she really wanted to show you something she thought was funny and always being there for Jeffrey when he asked you to Play and swim. You always helped my dad Weed the garden even though he thought those were plants lol!! And you will go back and rip them out. Hahah so many things I can say.... Mostly I feel like I should mention that you really were a true Catholic and I have never met someone your age who truly believed the way you did. Also I want Mary Pat Tony Maura and Ryan to know that when TK was here he had told me many times how much he loved each and everyone of you. He would tell me funny stories

of his past and always and with his love for mom dad Sister and brother. He also on speak of my best friend and his children but I never knew their names. Well that is it for my post ... but I'll tell my TK stories forever

“ We Knew This Boy

From his earliest times – from his earliest days

We knew this TK – yes we knew his ways

Heart of gold for sure – smiled as bright as the sun

Always a joy to be around – always, so much fun

Loving son, brother, grandchild, cousin, nephew and friend

To everyone for sure – contagious joy did he send

Not a holder of grudges – but his mind he would so speak

He would dish it out – but also turn the other cheek

Very smart and such strength – his Father’s power he had

Also his mother’s grace and tolerance – made his parents glad

Ever optimistic – things will work out, yes they would

TK walked through life – doing the good that he could

We knew he loved deep down – his resonance we could hear

For the good he looked for – how he loved to cheer

He would reminisce of days gone by – hoping tomorrow be better yet

Just looking for some peace – hoping he would get

Indeed it must be said – he blessed us with great joy

Great skills and wonderful looks – a truly handsome boy

Better in so many ways – but not one to call such out

As a lad pretty mild – not one to often shout

How he loved to compete – but the goal was victory

Not a hot dog or show off – but such talent there to see

Yes indeed good team mate – ready for any test

Hoping to show his team – on any day was best

But really he looked for joy – playing around in the park

He loved to smile and shine – not one to dwell in the dark

We knew this boy and he hasn't left – his bright soul we always knew

Gleaming eyes did tell – his heart how it stayed true

Oh dear boy we cry – for you now we do mourn

We knew you from the womb – from the time that you were born

Beautiful is the word – yes you we will describe

We knew and still do know you – gone but still alive

But now it's surely done – departure breaks our heart

Torn us all in tatters – yes we're torn apart

LORD do send the memories – of TK's cheeky blushing smile

Give us comfort for a time – at least for a little while

A special light he is – this TK shall not fade

May GREAT GOD always bless – this TK that HE made

We knew this boy we did – we knew him way back when

Now we only want – to see his face and smile again

We knew this boy and were blessed – he knew also that he was loved

Let us not now question why – who can question GOD above

For surely yes amongst us – this boy was never the least

How we pray that now – TK has found peace

Just to say his name - "TK" has such a ring

A smile to our faces - yes joy it still now brings

Dust to dust indeed - but also light to light

TK's smile, hope and his shine - TK did it right

TK's smile and his laughter – yes such goes on forever

Heaven forbid we forget – Lord we pray no never

Always he stayed family – surely us he never did forget

We believe TK's story – is not completely written yet

Remember us "T" ... we'll remember you ...

“ My condolences to the Cullen family. TK was a good man. Always checked in every holiday, always greeted you with a smile and asked about the family. He was great to be around, great to play basketball with and just an AWFUL shuffleboard partner! But he was a foxhole guy and I would rather lose with him than win with anyone else. I'm gonna miss getting to yell THE KID!!! Whenever he would finally decide to shoot the ball. He was a good friend and I'm gonna miss that the most. May God bless and protect him and his family and may he Rest in Peace.

“ TK was my first crush growing up and we always hung out in our friend group with Ryan and my girlfriends. He always seemed like such a good brother. So easy to like and hilarious. Even though he was older than me and knew I liked him he treated me with such kindness and never made me feel rejected. Such a sweetheart. I've always wondered where he went and how he was and I hope he's in a better place now. I'll always have a crush on you sweet TK. Rip.

It's crazy how fast the years pass. I haven't seen you in over 25 years but it still feels like yesterday playing football on Dare Street. Those will always be some of my fondest memories. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ TK was the best. Growing up down the street from him on Edith Avenue in Wdby he made everyone smile. He had hilarious jokes and was the leader of many street games. The charm was he made everyone feel included. He had such a special energy about him that this deeply saddens me. I know he will be at restful peace but my sincerest condolences to MaryPat, Tony, Ryan & Maura. This is a tragic loss.

“ TK was a tremendous athlete and a better person . I was lucky enough with Gary Bellotti to coach TK for several years. In the past few years we grew closer with Total respect for each other. As his Old Coach we had many conversations about many things in life. I would encourage him and pump him up, and he would listen intently. I am heartbroken to know he has left this life. He was moving on and up to chase his dreams. He was kind and cared about others . No more than his Mom , Dad , Sister Maura and brother Ryan. There is no doubt he's at peace with his God and Savior. RIP TK , I hope to see you again when my time comes.
