“ I have so many Ant you kept me sane at a time in my life when I couldn't keep myself safe. This just broke my heart. You are a special and talented person. The world lost a beautiful unique soul. I was lucky to call you my friend.

“ Anthony, Lil Ant, Ant, No matter what people called you. You were one of a kind. You climbed in my kitchen window one night and heated up some left over quessedilas that I had made earlier that day. I woke up to go to the bathroom and wondered what I was hearing. I saw you at the stove and just thought "Oh it's just Ant.., as chuckle to myself . Another time people were sleeping on the couch, the floor in the living room and Josh 's room and you were going around either checking on everyone or trying to wake them up . People either rolled over or shooed you away as if to say"Oh, it's just Lil Ant . You see it didn't matter...We all excepted you as you were. I believe you knew thatbut things got really rough for you towards the end. You loved your Mom and felt helpless because you didn't know how to help her. Forgive us for not knowing how to help you.. I won't pretend to know all you were going through but I do know you had a heart and wanted to help not only your Mom, your family and your friends if you could. I pray 🙏 for peace, Ant ...I hope you found what you were looking for . Your soul is in God's hands now and you will never be forgotten 💕 .

“ My deepest sympathy and prayers go out to the Giunta and Keller families. Anthony was such a vibrant and talented young man. I had the pleasure to share a lot of childhood times with him at the beach, or swimming at his Mom Mom's house. I loved him, and I am incredibly sad of his passing. May he rest in eternal peace. I had a memorial tree planted in your memory. 🙏

“ Anthony will be sorely missed. We spent so much time when we were younger debating the guitar work of the bands we listened to. This is a grave loss. We loved that man; what a unique soul.
