

Antoinette Davis

April 6, 1939 - September 4, 2022

Antoinette Davis (nee Scuderi) of West Deptford, New Jersey, passed on September 4, 2022 at age 83. A beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and aunt, Ann is survived by her husband of 57 years, John Sr, her two children John Jr (Tina) and Judith (Michael), her son-in-law Albert (Don), and her grandchildren Victoria (Christopher), Krystal, John III, Matthew, and Mason. Ann was the dear sister of the late Alfred (Sandra), Mary (Lowell), Anna (the late Anthony), Sandra (Corbin), and the late Richard. Ann was the daughter of the late Santo and Agnes Scuderi.

After earning her degree at Gloucester County College in May 1991, Ann became a substitute teacher and taught in Deptford township, West Deptford township, Gateway Regional High School, and Highland High School for over 30 years. Ann was very passionate about education and making sure others knew that it was never too late in life to follow your dreams. Ann loved to collect antiques and once had her own shop on antique row in Mullica Hill.

Ann loved to travel and went many places with her family, some of her favorite memories being her trip with her daughter to Europe and summers on the Chesapeake Bay. Ann loved watching game shows and cooking and was known for her famous potato salad. Ann was never shy to share how proud she was of her family and their accomplishments. Ann was cherished by her family and always made them laugh, often without even trying. She will be missed immensely.

At Ann's request, services will be private.

“ May she rest in peace, and her family take comfort. I will never forget how she took care of Judith and I in MD at the campground, and our childhood antics that must have driven her crazy. God Bless.
