“ My dear sister, you have gone to meet the Lord and I am overwhelmed with both joy and sadness! I already miss our phone calls talking about our grandchildren, politics, and the condition of the world but most of all I miss you, my big sister. You always expressed your love and concern for me. How we laughed reminiscing about growing up in South Philly. When I was a little boy, you were so kind - taking me everywhere with you. You took such good care of me. I feel so blessed that Patti and I had the opportunity to have dinner with you and Harry the night before you left for vacation. We had such a great time! God is so good!

Most importantly, you are with Our Lord and His glory!

*I'll love you always,
Your brother, Vince*

“ My beautiful Annette I miss you so much. You gave me everything I could ever wish for. Wonderful sons, a beautiful home a love for Jesus. You lived your faith. Your love for our family showed every day, especially for our grandchildren. I see your reflection in their eyes. Enjoy your mansion and glory my love may it be everything you thought and more I'll save our last kiss until we see each other again, Harris

“ My sister Annette was my best friend. She cared for me like nobody on earth, (of course aside from Jesus). She honestly always had my best interest at heart. She included me in everything without a second thought. We spoke several times a day. She loved God’s Word and would always do her daily devotions by herself and with her husband. She suffered a lot physically with her asthma and arthritis. Even emotionally. Annette had no problem admitting her sins and weaknesses. Her sins truly got her down. She would often say to me I’m such a sinner, how could God save me? I would have to remind her of the cross and what it cost Jesus to die in our place. She was a Godly and beautiful woman. I wish more folks were able to see the beautiful soul she truly was. I will greatly miss her. I’m grateful that she is free from pain. In the presence of the Lord is the fullness of joy. I love you 💔💔💔 Annette. Your sister Maria.

To know she is with her Lord & Savior is a great comfort. She was a beautiful person and now is complete in Heaven.
