“ It is so hard to relize that poppy is gone. Everytime i walk downstairs i expect to see him there asking me why i am not in school or how i am. poppy was the back bone of our family. he was my bestfriend when i was little and as i got older we grew apart a little but always came back together when we needed it the most. i could do anything i wanted to him and he never cared, even when i cracked him in the head with one of my toys and gave him stiches he laughed it off and just smiled. poppy was an amazing man and i miss him so much. i love you poppy u will forever be my solider
