“ When I married Poppies Son Armond JR he wanted me to make Broccoli Raab . So he says call Poppie for the recipe . When I called and asked poppie was so excited to give me the secret to a perfect Italian Raab. He says “ok listen up you get to bundles of broccoli raab , you cut off the thick parts , you put Extra Virgin Olive oil in bottom of a large pot just a table spoon, add 1 tspn of dried crushed red pepper , 2 piece of chopped fresh garlic add the greens shake salt onto it heat it up and put lid on . When you smell the garlic add water .” I asked how much water pops he says listen this is the most important part get a tall drinking glass fill it up 1 and a half times that’s how much water “ I said so I can’t measure the water ? He says no just find a Glass not plastic water glass and do what I say it will come out perfect. Stop trying to measure SHIT your gonna screw this all up ! Well needless to say his Raab recipe is the best anyone has ever had . After that he taught me how to make “ Petzels” without measuring a single ingredient!
