Born and raised in Camden, NJ, Janet lived in southern New Jersey for over eight decades. She grew up in Camden and West Collingswood Heights. Graduated high school from St. Joe’s High (Camden) in 1955 and later worked at Bell Telephone as a long-distance operator. Janet met James Frank Parry in the late 1950s. They were married on November 12, 1960, at Immaculate Conception (Camden). They lived in Georgia for two years at Fort Benning where her husband was stationed after he joined the US Army Corps of Engineers. After, they moved back to New Jersey (Deptford) where they lived happily for 49 years until her husband James passed away in September 2019. Janet was a devoted catholic and prayed the rosary daily. Her aunt Kate was a nun, and she was close friends with Monsignor O’Connor (Ventnor, NJ) and Father Piotr “Peter” Szamocki (Bellmawr & Marmora, NJ). Janet was involved in numerous Catholic charities.

Janet and James were active in the Philadelphia mummers from their early marriage up until around 1988. Several of their family and friends were also members of the string bands. Janet and her sister Kathleen met their husbands through their brother August “Fuzzy”. August, James Parry, and Ron Reynolds were members of a band called “The Bel Aires”.

Janet and her husband lived a full life. They loved to travel the world, visiting Europe and her favorite travel destination was Hawaii visiting several times. They even stayed in Australia for an entire month, creating memories to last a lifetime. Janet had many hobbies which included crochet, gardening, ceramics, and her all-time favorite “shopping”. In their golden years, Janet & James spent many summers at their beach house in Brigantine, NJ. They enjoyed walking on the beach, fishing, spending time at the pool, and especially visits from their grandchildren.

“ Mom,

Your suffering is over. Even though we will miss you, knowing you are with Dad gives us comfort. The gates of heaven were wide open when you arrived and Jesus was waiting for you with open arms. We love you and will never forget the love and joy you gave us.

I am really sorry Jim and Diane for Aunt Janet's loss. She was my godmother and always had an extra gift for me whenever we met. She was filled with life and made all our visits happy. Our condolence for your Nolan and Olivia and all her friendly family. I'll always be grateful Anita and my kids met my Uncle Jim and Aunt Janet. Rest in peace.
