“ God looked around his Garden and found an empty place. He then looked down upon his earth and saw your loving face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. His Garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best. He knew that you were suffering, he knew you were in pain. And knew that you would never get well on earth again. He saw your path was difficult, he closed you tired eyes, He whispered to you "Peace be Thine" and gave you wings to fly. When we saw you sleeping so calm and free of pain, We would not wish you back to earth to suffer once again. You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide, You live on through your children, you're always by our side. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone. For part of us went with you on the day God called you home

“ Aunt Tina, Where do I start? You already know how much you will be missed, and how much that you are loved. I am so happy for all the good times and bad that we shared together. From the time that I was a child through my adulthood. I feel very privlaged to have known you as my aunt, my friend, and as a second mom. I will never forget our coffee and dounut mornings, I will miss them. And I will always remember the day you went to help me find my wedding gown, and how you cried when you saw me in it and you told me that I would make a beatiful bride. I will cherrish that moment for the rest of my life. There will never ever be another you. I cry today not for the sorrow of never seeing you again, but the hopes that I will see you again one day. That I know will be a joyious day. And I feel very lucky to have spent the time with you that I did. I love you now and always will, I will never forget you. Love always your niece Cheryl
