

Barbara A. Marks

March 24, 1945 - January 20, 2021

Barbara A. Marks “Barb” (nee Jackson) of Shepherd’s Farm Senior Housing in West Deptford, passed away peacefully on January 20, 2021. Age 75. Loving mother of Garfield “Dan” Kirk (Kathleen) of West Deptford and step-mother of Cher Marks of Florida. Beloved sister of Roger Jackson (Barbara) of Cherry Hill. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Barb was a waitress at Blackwood/Meadows Diner in Blackwood and former bartender at the Wagon Wheel Bar in Deptford. She enjoyed music, bowling and bingo. Most of all, Barb made many friends with her upbeat and outgoing personality.

Services Private at the convenience of the family.

“ It's a week today & I will miss her so much..Miss her voice & upbeat attitude..Her response was always everything was great! She kept me going for the most part of our lives..Met her in Atlantic City around 1967. Best of times..We did everything together..worked, lived, beach, Florida, New York, saw Johnny Carson at Resorts along with her Mom..These special ladies Barbara & Anna are together again..Fly high with the angels...Love you forever

Barb!!! I was just asking around to see how you were doing and opened the paper and just saw this! How many wonderful days we spent floating in the water at Lake Hurff! You were one of the most positive and upbeat people that I ever knew!!! Rest In Peace my friend! You knew the secret to living your best life and you did it to the fullest!!! Rest In Peace, my friend!!! ❤️ Sophia Jolley

“ Barbie I will miss you but our friendship was special. Sitting out side drinking beers and smoking. Eating greasey, fatty foods. Dancing at the wheel and laughing our asses off. We had our day. Will never forget and will miss you always.

*Love You Friend
