“ So many happy memories of Aunt Barbara fill my mind and heart. While I am sad she is gone, I feel sure she is in a better place- probably blowing up an oven with my mother. Only Tammy will understand. Heaven help Heaven, their hands are full now. Thinking of you and holding you in my heart.....

“ Although I haven't seen Aunt Barbara in a long time, I've thought about her often. Growing up with her & our other Taylor Ave. neighbors were the best days of my life. She may be gone in body but not from our memories. I will see her one day when I too go home to live with God in heaven.

“ What a beautiful video tribute to your Mother. I remember growing up on Chestnut Street in Westville with her and then her family moved away to Maryland (I think). Got to see her again when we attended Haddon Heights Baptist Church. My prayers are with you and your sons.
