“ To the children of Mrs. Davies, I am soooooo sorry for your loss and I understand your hurt/pain. I was with Buppie and the other girls on Saturday. I also (2 years ago) on April 7, lost my mom at the age of 47, she left behind me and my sister and 6 grandbabies. She was taken from us suddenly (w no warning), of a heart condition. So I feel your pain and I know I do not know you or your family, but I am here for you all if you EVER need someone to talk to. You have an angel watching down on you each day and she is always with you. Nicole and family

“ To The Children of Beverly: I am the woman who was at the comedy club, with my daughter and her friends, who assisted with initiating CPR. I haven't stopped thinking about your mom and you kids since that night - and ironically we are all from Deptford. I saw your mom's obituary and just knew that it was the same person because everything just seemed to fit. I am soooo sorry for you kids. I lost my own mother when she was just 47 years old too. Please accept my condolences and also please know that the emt's did everything they possibly could. Looking at your mom's pictures in the video, I can tell she was a loving mother and adored her children. God Bless and Keep You and help you through this very difficult time.

“ Beverly, you were such a sweet little girl. I still have the picture of you hugging the dog Buttons. You looked so cute. We lost touch after your teenage years, but you will be forever in my heart. I will keep you and your family in my prayers. Love, Aunt Barbara
