“ Well ma I was thinking about you (which is nothing new) I realized I never signed your online book. It has been 5 long years since you passed away so much as changed and so much has happen that I wish you were able to see. Your Kayley Lynn and little billy are so big and smart and beautiful. Also rite after you passed away me and billy got pregnant with another baby just two short months after you left us his name is Ciaran Chase Underwood. I wish you could have been there to see him come into this world you being there for blaine means the world to me, two short years after Ciaran was born we had ANOTHER .. (Yeah ma we took after you ? 1 girl and 3 boys) you have another grandson his name is Landin Richard Underwood. You would adore him too your baby pictures and his are almost identical I love it. I could go on for days about how much I miss you and how often I cry thinking of you .. Any time a song comes on or the weather changes it makes me think of you. I love you so much and I learned so much from you. I hope you an pops are in heaven together smiling down on the beautiful family you two created. I am blessed to have had you guys in my life and will forever miss and love u two. Sleep with the Angels . All my love ..

“ Well this is a little late but I just want to say I love you mom. I made it and life is good. Very difficult without you being here but I try to focus on the positive in my world like you thought me and with that perspective in mind I feel blessed. You're still missed so much by all of us. Your grandkids are growing beautifully and you're in all of our hearts. I love you gorgeous. Keep your chin up/sleep with the angels.

“ Although I never met Beverly, her impression of emotional happiness found its way upon many people. I Married her brother Darin warren, and my sympathy goes out to you baby because I have one brother and I couldn't imagine living my life with out him in existence. My prayers go out to every life touched by her love. And Darin I know you miss her dearly and the pain u feel is unbearable, but live because that's what your sister would have wanted; for you to live, love, and find the beauty in life that seems to be overlooked everyday. Sorry for all the children as well as you mom (which many know as Towanda),may God always be with you all in your journey of life.
