“ I am so very sorry for your loss. During times such as these, thoughts and feelings can be difficult to express. I have found comfort from a promise found in the Bible at Isaiah 25:8. There, God says that he will 'do away with death forever. And the Sovereign Lord...will wipe away the tears from all their faces.'. I hope that this thought provides you with some comfort. Please accept my deepest sympathies.

“ Dear Schafer Family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.
