“ My memory is of a young CJ horsing around with his brother Timmy at the Deptford Midget Football field. Mom working the snack bar and Dad talking with the parents of the team he was coaching. CJ and Timmy were always respectful good kids and great athletes. My heart is heavy for all of you. Please try to nourish your heart and head with all of your memories everyday. Though the memories all hurt in time they will overcome you with the love you all shared with CJ and bring you comfort knowing he will always be with you. My thoughts and prayers are with your family . Please call if you need anything

“ Omg of have so many memories. A funny one is....
His dad hates snakes, so 1 day I bought a fake snake and showed CJ and lil Timmy. CJ said he had the perfect idea. He put it in water and it blew up to look real and he put it in the front step n called his dad outside. When his dad opened the door and stepped down, he screamed and ran away from it. We couldn't stop laughing lol. He was a prankster
