“ *Dear Linda, Lou & Family,
We are so deeply sorry for your unbelievable loss. We were just very recently made aware of Casey's illness. We truly hope and pray that somehow in some way that the wonderful memories you have of this beautiful young woman will help you to get through this difficult time. She has blessed you all with your wonderful, beautiful little granddaughter and she has been blessed with you as her family. May God help to keep you all strong, close and in some small way, at peace. God Bless you all.
With Love, Jean & Frank Muratore*

“ Casey and I were friends as little kids, we went to birthday parties together and as we got older and entered the doors of middle school and high school we grew apart, that doesn't mean I forgot about her or the times we shared. She will remain in my heart. My condolences go out to her family & friends. She was loved and will be missed by many. God bless her little girl!!
