“ Nan,
It's been 10 years since my last post here..although I talk to you a lot. I know how hard you had to fight with your illness, especially during that time period. But you guided Mommy who in turn guided us. I'm proud you're my Nan and I think we are more a like now then i ever knew. Mommys last post was after Binksy died and I know you see her, my best friend and daughter. You both had similar personalities. I miss her everyday but she is free of pain. Now your great grandchild Myka is here. I call her Mikey. I talk to you all the time..but felt I need to do this here..whichever message I am trying to convey. We miss you Nan. Mommy does everyday too. I'm nowhere near normal and in pain, but keep an eye on Mommy for me and Shell and Myka. Also Mom Mom. Say hi to my Binksy. Oh, and it slightly rained on St. Swiften's Day. You were right.

“ Dear Mommy, Its been so long since I could talk to you.... I pray to you... I know you are listening... I miss you so much...You were the strongest person I've ever known... You gave me your strength and determination... I'm really tired sometimes and wish I could see you and Daddy...the girls are growing into beautiful women... You would be proud...Carlos and I are having our first grandchild in February...I wish they could know you... You were such a character...we all still laugh so hard when we are talking about some of your adventures...miss your wisdom..miss your touch...miss your wit...miss you....As you and Daddy said to us every night of our lives..Goodnight and God Bless You... Your Mikey

“ As a Chaplain at the Camden County Health Services Center, I had the priviledge of visiting with Mrs. Majeski several times, often along with her roommate Mrs. Virginia Varrel. Mrs. Majeski was always so kind and faithful... We would sing hymns together. She asked for prayer for young Edward for his eyes. May Jesus bless him. Amen.

“ Dear Majeski Family- Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
What wonderful memories we have of our two families...starting as neighbors in Woodbury Gardens. Your mom was a special person and a wonderful friend to Mary. They are reunited in Heaven. With love-Greg and Karen
