“ Chuck and Kelley, Keith and I were so saddened to learn of your father's passing. Please know that we are thinking of you both and sending our heartfelt sympathy. We didn't know your father, but to leave this world a son & daughter as fine as the two of you is no small accomplishment, and for that alone we wish we could have known him. We wish we had words to comfort you both in your grief, but we know there are none that will take away any pain you are feeling now. Our thoughts and prayers are with you both at this sad time.

“ To family of Charlie, The Courtney family was instrumental to me and my siblings when we were growing up. They were cousins and playmates and we had some great times together. Aunt Alice was an inspiration; she was widowed at an early age with 6 children to raise. She did so with grace, humor and kindness. She raised 6 generous and great human beings. Charlie was truly a hero-not only because of his military service but because of his good nature, his quick laugh and his kindness. He never treated us like little kids; he was always attentive and made sure to include us in family activities. Thank you Charlie-I was saddened by your passing. Thank you also for saving our brother Mark Love Joy

“ Chuck was a strong spiritual beacon for me. He was also the source of some great jokes, especially the "page 112" joke which had me laughing hysterically. I'll miss our conversations about God. I'll miss Chuck. May his soul be always at peace.

“ My favorite memories are of the summers on the lake and of the holidays...with a snow covered Linda and Chuck carrying Kelley or Chuck into Grandma and Grandpa's house saying Merry Christmas everyone and going in to sit with Grandpa while the girls cooked the dinners..of sitting together watching the kids open their presents...of all the fun birthday parties and his laugh, oh how his laugh could fill a room.....of him doing the readings for our wedding in South Carolina and having a 2 year Chuckie follow him up to the alter...and I have so many others in my heart.....I wish him eternal peace and I wish his family comfort and love.....

“ You had been a crucial and pivotal person in my early recovery. You taught me humility when I had none, and caring when I thought no one would. Your overall outlook on life, the love that you had for all, and your sense of humor made you glow from the inside. If one would open oneself this effect was contagious. You will be missed dearly. Love and Peace to you I will see you again I am certain.

Love,
Paul
