“ Chuck was a very special guy, a very special character. I thoroughly enjoyed his company as a co-worker at Citizens Bank Park for fourteen seasons. We kidded each other about his Pittsburgh (vs. my Philadelphia) roots, and how we greeted fans. But I can say that each of the thousands and thousands of fans he greeted could feel he had a sincere interest in them. His baseball trivia questions made our daily interactions a form of bonding. The old ball yard won't be the same without him. RIP Chuck. Rick F.

“ Aunt Joan, Maureen, Colleen:

I'm thinking of all of you during this difficult time, and so wish I could be there with you. I'm so sad knowing I'll never hear Uncle Pat greet me with "Hi Di" ever again. I pray the wonderful memories you have give you comfort in the days to come. He's now free from pain, and was greeted at the pearly gates by Grandma, Grandpa, Uncle Jim and my Dad. Heaven has a new angel watching over all of you.

Love,

“ A quote I love: Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. May your happy memories ease your pain. Your dad will always have a special place in my heart as he was the usher who trained me at the Phillies.

“ Uncle Pat was one of a kind. I still remember him picking up Grandma Fitzgerald at one of the family parties and swinging her around. He had a kind heart, and beyond his sin of being a Steeler fan, a wonderful man. He'll be missed.

Your cousin.
