“ Jeanette and Lindsey, I send my deepest sympathy for your loss. I am sorry that I could not be at the service, but my cousin passed on Saturday and the services are all the same time. As always be there for each other, stay strong for each other and you will find your way through these sadden times. If there is anyway I can be of comfort to you or help in any of your needs, please get in touch with me. Our hearts go out to you with love and condolences, Sheila, Randy and Leah

“ Dear Jeanette, Chris, and Lindsay,
Our deepest sympathies, prayers, thoughts, and love to you and your family. The video tribute brought back so many wonderful memories. What I recall mostly was Charlie's love for his family. He always spoke of his childrens' accomplishments in life: From Chris getting married out West to Serving in the Military. He was so very proud of you! For Lindsay receiving A's in school, how you excelled in sports, and simply how sweet and precious you truly are. And Dear Jeanette: Charlie's unending love for your warm and tender heart, your optimism, your love of people and caring ways along with your beautiful smile.
If you've ever tried to search for the words to say that you're sorry and how much you care, then you'll know what I'm trying to say...and how very sorry I am for your loss.

“ *To my beautiful kind daughter, I loved Charlie like he was my own son. He helped me whenever I needed it and he was so good to you. I never worried about your future because I knew he would always take good care of you and your children. I know what you are going through, you were only 18 when your father passed away. Celebrate his life and mourn his departing your way. Laugh, cry, be angry, feel sad and never feel guilty enjoying life. That is what he would want for you. Chris and Lindsay, Your father loved you more than life, be proud and carry on his legacy. Teach your children all you have learned from your father and share all your memories. He will live on through you. Close your eyes and picture his smile when he looked at you, that's love.
I'm always there for all of you! Love, Mom, Grandmom*

“ *Dear Jeanette, We were shocked to hear the sad news about Charlie. It has been so long since we were all together. If only we could take back time. Marge Ann still remembers all the talks she had with Charlie when he sat right across from her help with his COBOL programming course. And of course your wedding - how happy you both were.
Our prayers are with you, Lindsay and Chris at this sorrowful time.*

“ Jeanette and Family, My deepest sympathy to you and your family. I did not directly work with Charlie, but we shared many conversations during our smoke breaks at work. We often talked about Vegas and AC. He was a fantastic Guy, and made me laugh on many occasions. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Dear Mrs Grettner & Family,
I am so sorry about Charlie's death. He was a wonderful man who touched so many lives with his joy and generosity. We miss him deeply already, and I can only imagine the heartbreak you feel. Charlie was a good person and friend of many. He will be missed. I am very lucky to have known him and I will always remember his stories about Doberman Pinscher from Kimbertal and trip to a Polish store in Port Richmond. I will be praying for your family during this difficult time. Please accept my deepest sympathy in your loss.
Sincerely, Kasia McKelvey
