“ Aunt Cheryl visited my parents home often when I was growing up. The things I will remember most is her laugh (giggle), and saying whatever was on her mind. She told it like it was. I will keep those fond memories of her in my heart, and send condolences to her family during this difficult time. Michele Szymborski

“ Since the day Cheryl moved in with us with all the up and downs the most memory that sticks out the most to me is her stories from when Jimmy was little !!! I have enjoyed shopping with you Cheryl and will always cherish the memories you gave Jimmy an I while living with us !!! ❤️💕 You may not have been my mother in law by marriage but I will always consider you my mother in law !!!
