“ It's impossible for me to share one memory, I have a rich lifetime full of wonderful memories. We met in second grade and remained friends since then. We were about to meet up again, but God chose to take her home. Till we meet again dear friend, I will cherish our great times together and your absolutely beautiful smile.

“ The obituary is beautifully written.

Memories:

A white Corsica.

A stainless steel thermos of coffee that was carried around still warm at every time of day

Plastic covers over the fancy “not to be sat on” living room furniture

Sweet iced tea

Reese cups

Fishing in OCNJ and the Outer Banks

Crabbing, crab spaghetti, and not being allowed to slowly lower the crabs into the pot of boiling water

Trips to Duck for hush puppies

AAAANGELA!!!!

This wonderful woman will be missed.
