“ *Dear Max and Family,
Please accept my sincerest sympathy on the loss of your dear one. Chris and I started working together at Schnader back in the '70s. We enjoyed chatting together and even after I retired, we continued to stay in touch by e-mail.
Keep only the happy memories and know that you will be together again.*

“ Dear Max and the Family - I was so sorry to hear about Chris's passing. I heard she had been ill and just this past Monday morning I heard that she might be taking a turn for the worse and I was planning on sending her a note. I was devastated by the news of her death. Both my wife, Vera, and I offer to all of you our deepest sympathies.

“ Max, Sometimes God allows us to go through times of sorrow in order to touch those who encounter the same. We know all-too-well the grief you bear just now, and we are here for you to lean on ... Please know that we love you and we're only a hug away! Chris is finally home now, safe in the arms of her Savior - that we can guarantee, Praise God.

In HIS care, Gary & Sharon Goodrow - and your Laurel Hill Family.

“ How can you possibly put into words what the woman who gave you life means to you.

Mom, I love you and miss you terribly. Life will never be the same without you in it.

I hope peace has finally found you after the most trying year of your life. You were taken from us much too young.

Rest in Peace!
