“ He was my childhood friend. We had many fun times growing up in Verga. I remember how much he loved to talk. He was always a good hearted person. My sincere condolences go out to the Benson Family.

“ Clayton was like my little brother I've known him since he was 4 years old.He was funny even then.He never had much but he would help anyone,give what he had to those in need and had a huge heart for people in general.He was a true friend which is a blessing in a world filled with selfish,uncaring people.I loved him very much.He loved the Lord,the scriptures and was a natural minister of God's love and grace.A terrible loss for those who knew him.He had many talents and one of them was his ability to make you laugh.He never judged those who society would consider an outcast or a loser.He understood the simplicity of life,that it's all by God's grace,whatever we have or don't have.He loved the Lord,his family,and his friends.I will miss his company.I thank God that I knew him

“ It just really hurts my heart to know that Clayton is gone. He was a good cousin to me. What I remember about Clayton the most is that he had a heart of gold, always was kind and seemed to be always happy. He visited me over in Pennsylvania when I was going through my divorce and that was really nice of him and I won't ever forget that kindness.

I'll see you in another place at another time. Peace be with you Clayton.

Love, Kathleen M. Hille (Flanagan)

“ Clayton's eternal, free, and uninhibited spirit has only changed address! He will be remembered for his kind, giving and creative spirit. He was my "first love" from about age 14 til 20. He and I lived together for several years. He was the reason I moved to San Diego when I was 17. Each person we are involved with on any scale has major ramifications in our lives. If not for him I would not have moved to CA, then to AU and then met and married my husband who in turn gave me the two awesome children that I have and I may never have gotten to venture to nearly half of where I have been and done. I loved him and adored him. I am sure he is leaving behind many who still feel the same way. To the Stars Clayton. I still have the poem that you wrote for my mother. Say hello to her for me dear man! Peace to Reen and Family
