

Clifford F. Kollmeier, Jr.

June 13, 1929 - March 12, 2023

Clifford F. Kollmeier, Jr. on March 12, 2023 of Sewell. Age 93. Loving father of John (Debbie) Kollmeier of Kennett Square and the late Tracy Kollmeier. Cherished brother of Arthur (Cindee) Kollmeier of Deptford. Devoted grandfather “Poppop Cookies” of Morgan and Casey. He is also survived by his loving canine companion, Jezebel.

Clifford served in the Military for the U.S. Army, was a life-long educator serving as a teacher, administrator, and private teacher, was the band leader for the Cliff Kollmeier Orchestra, made countless appearances behind his drums with admired swing and big bands, and most recently served as a reliable source of laughs and sunshine to his dear friends at Cardinal Village. He enjoyed golfing, music, teaching and most of all, his family.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend a visitation on Saturday, March 25, 2023 from 10:00am to 10:45 am in The Chapel at BOUCHER FUNERAL HOME, 1757 Delsea Drive, Deptford, NJ 08096.

“ My deepest condolences to Cliff's family, Cliff was the greatest! He's smile, sense of humor, kindness and sincerity and more! He was such a joy to all who knew him at Cardinal Village. My days there are not the same without getting a few hugs from him. He was the greatest hugger of all times. It was an honor to have known him. God rest his soul.

*Sincerely,
JoAnn Watson

“Cliff was my cousin and Godfather. I would spend my summers with Cliff, Artie, Aunt Helen their Mom and my Godmother. And our Grandmother Georgia, Cliff had the best sense of humor. I remember him banging on the drums all day as a teenager. I loved it. My thoughts and prayers are with your family. You will be missed. Love Bonnie and Fred Zengel ❤️

“I cherish the memories with Cliff at Elmer Baptist and on the golf course. Being a part of his annual golf trip provided some of my best times. He was quite the planner! I'm sure he's hitting them long and straight in heaven.

“ We appreciate Cliff's faith, prayer life, and encouragement. He had a positive outlook, even when he was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. He helped so many people, had a wonderful sense of humor, and made you feel loved. We will miss him so much!! Dave and Miriam Smith
