

Cora Bagley Wellons

November 18, 1922 - February 19, 2012

Cora Bagley Wellons of Woodbury Heights went home to be with her Lord on Sunday, February 19, 2012 surrounded by her loving family. She was the youngest of four children born November 18, 1922 in Philadelphia, PA to Lillian (Austin) and Robert Bagley, Sr. Cora was a loving caring, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and aunt. She dedicated her life to caring and nurturing her family as well as many friends. Her greatest joy in life was her family and was well known for her ability to prepare full course dinners for her large family with little or no notice. She was a life-long member of St. Augustine's Church of the Covenant in Philadelphia where she and Darlphus (Doc) Wellons were united in holy matrimony on June 26, 1944. Their union was blessed with 3 children, Adolphus (Doc), Michael and Beverly. She was predeceased by her parents; brother Robert Jr. and sister Lillian. She leaves to mourn her husband of 68 years, 3 children, 7 grandchildren: Sheri Larry, Danielle Jackson, Douglas Wellons, Michael Wellons, LaRoy Ranton, Maurice Wellons, and Erik Brown and 8 great-grandchildren: Justin Wellons, Claire Wellons, Jasmin Washington, Darren Ranton, Kyla Jackson, Kyle Jackson, Cecily Larry, and Jasmine Larry; brother, Phillip Bagley Sr. and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Relatives and friends may visit with the family Noon to 1:00 pm, Saturday, February 25, 2012 at BOUCHER FUNERAL HOME, 1757 Delsea Dr., Deptford, NJ 08096. Funeral services will be held at 1:00 pm at the funeral home. Interment private. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Samaritan Hospice, 5 Eves Dr., Suite 300, Marlton, NJ 08053.

“ Mom Mom, in a few days, it will be a month since heaven called you home. I see your face, hear your voice, I even smell you. Every day I wonder if today is the day it will get easier. I tried to make your chicken & dumplings last week but couldn't find the strength to do it. But I made the soup you love so much and took some to Pop Pop. And today, I made your cole slaw. I cleaned & rearranged a lot of your crystal. I heard you say "I don't care what you do with it!" I couldn't help but laugh. I hope that one day, I can laugh more than cry. Haven't gotten there yet though. I miss you. Love, Sheri.

“ To the Entire Ranton Family, I never had the pleasure of meeting Cora, but my sister Franny Cannon loved her very much. She especially enjoyed Cora and Doc at the family Bar-B-Q's, and never failed to tell me what I was missing by living so far away. The Ranton family is now blessed with having their very own "Guardian Angel" to watch over them. I am sure she also will be a big help to everyone in heaven as she was to everyone on earth. My thoughts & prayers are with you. Shelvie J. Parker

“ We are sorry to learn of the passing of Cora Bagley Wellons. Cora was a faithful member of St. Augustine's Church of the Covenant, Philadelphia, Pa. all of her life. Her strong and abiding faith sustained her in difficult times and during her illness. We were deeply touched and inspired by her optimism and dependence on God for His mercies each and every day. Now that God has called her unto Himself, she is out her 'sorrow, sickness and pain into 'God's 'freedom, gladness and peace.' We extend our deepest sympathy to her bereaved family. Know that she is now 'nestling within the cleft of the Rock of Ages and resting within the bosom of God's unchanging love.' May God grant her a place of light and peace and spiritual refreshment.

“ A RESOLUTION IN MEMORY

OF Cora Bagley Wellons

FROM

CALVARY ST. AUGUSTINE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

February 25, 2012

The Congregation of Calvary St. Augustine Episcopal Church, the Vestry and our Interim priest, Rev. Isaac Miller, join together in expressing deepest sympathy in the passing of your loved one.

Revelation 5:9 tells us that when Jesus shed his blood on the cross for believers, we became God's possessions; and he has simply reclaimed one of his own.

As the family deals with this most difficult aspect of life and living, put your faith, trust, and hope in God: remembering Romans 8:28

“We know that in everything God works for good with those who love him, who are called according to his purpose”.

May God richly bless your time together as family and friends of Cora.

God bless you and the peace of God the Father be yours forever.
