

Cynthia Paranto

February 13, 1964 - July 1, 2025

Cynthia Carol Evans Paranto, born on February 13, 1964, in Wilmington, Delaware, was adopted shortly thereafter by her loving parents, Dave and Alberta Evans. She passed away on July 1, 2025, after courageously battling cancer. Cynthia spent her final weeks at Lake Garrison — her peaceful place — surrounded by family and friends.

Cynthia was the proud mother of Mark David, Michael, and Dean. Throughout her life, she worked tirelessly in various jobs before finding her true calling in Human Resources. She found great joy in connecting with colleagues and forming lasting friendships — especially with those who shared her quick wit, sarcasm, and jovial banter.

Above all, Cynthia's heart belonged to her beloved grandchildren: Jayden, Jade, Lilly, Jax, Carter, Liv, and Abby. She cherished every moment with them and lived for the happiness they brought into her life. She was their biggest cheerleader, rarely missing a play, choir recital, soccer game, wrestling match, tournament, or graduation — always shaking her homemade rattles that her children and grandchildren “just loved.”

Cynthia was deeply proud of her Irish heritage — a discovery she treasured thanks to AncestryDNA — and fulfilled a lifelong dream by traveling to Ireland. A spirited New York Giants fan (to the dismay of her Eagles-loving family), she delighted in keeping the rivalry alive.

A luncheon celebrating Cynthia's life will be held on Friday, July 25, 2025, from 12:00 to 4:00 p.m. at Scarpinato's Cucina, 194 Fries Mill Rd., Blackwood, NJ 08012.
