

Dalene M. Loss

May 9, 1942 - November 19, 2020

Dalene M. Loss (nee Farside), 78. May 9, 1942-Nov 19, 2020

Daughter of Tenner and Gwendolyn Farside, born in Vineland, NJ on May 9, 1942. Passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family November 19, 2020.

She was a beloved and devoted mother to Thomas Phrampus, Miles Phrampus and Robertta Shomo (Loss). Loving big sister to Jeffery (wife, Carol) Farside and late Marcia Grace Miller (Farside). Compassionate step-mother to Sheila Grossklaus (Loss), Sarah Scoville (Loss) and Stacy Buckhannon (Loss).

Dear aunt to late Colleen Groh and late William Groh, Desiree and Daniel Farside. Great aunt to Tara and Roy Silver, Jared Farside, Kristin and Erin Cornell, and Zachary, Alexia, Dominic and Anthony Farside.

Treasured and devoted grandmother to Sonya Hardesty, Julia Hartmann (Lopez), Rachel Phrampus, Sara Reed, Noah, Kayla, Hailee and Mariah Walker, Riley and Evan Shomo, and Graci Phrampus. She adored her grandchildren and cherished every moment she spent with them, always finding ways to make little memories that would last forever.

She was a selfless caretaker by nature, from fixing children's boo-boos to caring for elderly or sick friends and family. You knew you were always in good hands with Dalene.

She loved all things Elvis, was an avid reader of Stephen King novels and enjoyed horror films and the TV series Twilight Zone.

She loved cheering on the Phillies and NY Giants, but would not hold back letting you know when they weren't playing up to her expectations. She also enjoyed the boardwalk, casinos, photography, painting, watching the races and attending church. The best time of year for her family was Christmas evening, when we would all gather around the table to enjoy her famous homemade lasagna.

Services will be held privately at Christ Church-Woodbury on December 11, 2020 at 5pm, with a memorial reception following at the Moose lodge in Paulsboro. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to family.
