“ Dan was one of a kind. He was the end-all for Blue Cross knowledge and always willing to lend a helping hand. We'll always remember the Blue Cross conference calls starting with the dolphin sound he'd play for his friend Joanne Dolphin. We were all shocked and saddened to learn of his passing. Love and prayers for his family from his Acclara Family (Tre, Cheryl, Joanne, Tina, Jessie, DeVida, Amie, Aunt Gin, Karen, Diane)

We sat across from each other for years and became good friends and how u always said this is my sister n u were my brother. From ur 1st apartment to getting a promotion to another dept. At blue cross I was always happy to see u smile n be like tree I gotta show u or tell u what's happened. I loved every funny, sad, and emotional moment we shared. How we talked about movies n series especially the Sopranos. I love and will miss u dearly. Rest well my brother.

“ Danny and I worked together at IBC and became fast friends. There was not a kinder gentler soul who was also a pain in the ass. The worst was being in a long and boring meeting sitting next to Danny and trying to keep a straight face. You were loved by more people than you can ever imagine. We will all miss you. I'm so glad I got to see you one last time and was able to tell you I love you... Rest Easy My Dear Sweet Friend.—Mins

“ To all of Danny's family, we are so very sad to hear of Danny's passing. From the first time we met him as a little boy, we knew he'd always be a special part of our family. As the years went by there were so many wonderful memories That we have which Danny was a part of. He always kept in touch even in later years with a funny text on holidays and most recently a very welcome surprise visit. We will miss him, he will always be remembered by all of us with much love, happy memories, and a smile . Rest In Peace dear Danny. We will love you always. Sincerely and with much love and sympathy, Debbie and Tony Tangi and family

“ My dear sweet “brother from another mother” words cannot describe how my friend turned to family. Through all things we had each others back. I will miss singing songs from our favorite musicals and practicing the lift from Dirty Dancing even though you wouldn't let me be Baby lol. I will miss you forever.

I still can't believe he is gone. He will be missed by his Penn Medicine family. He was well known and always made people laugh. He was a dedicated and hard working employee. I was there when he wanted to talk or ask for advice. He was one of those employees who would help anyone if he knew the answer. He was an great asset to the Blue Cross team. I will miss you SL

“ Deeply saddened to hear of the loss of Danny. We were best friends growing up, Danny was like an extended member of my family. We had so many fun childhood memories. He was one of a kind, had his quirks but that is what made him so special. He loved his Star Wars figures, transformers, GI Joe's and comics. Oh and Doritos, Cadbury eggs and Nutella lol.

Always looked forward to going over his house and playing with his toy collection, and Friday night pizza, Rose's delicious fried meatballs and chicken cutlets!

We started our working careers together at Pathmark at the age of 13 lol, but way before that we were always looking for ways to earn money to buy our favorite toys and comics. Lemonade stands, selling pretzels, shoveling snow, and even going door to door singing Christmas carols. Just so many great memories. He will truly be missed, but we can find comfort that he is now with his mom and dad, Charles and Holly. My condolences to Dan's family. Rest In Peace my friend, love always

“ The moment I met Dan at IBC we instantly clicked. He was a great coworker who had a giant heart and was eager to help anyone with work, eating snacks, or just talk for a few minutes to catch up, He had a beautiful smile and infectious laugh and always made me laugh the way he called me by my last name. I hope you are at peace Paisan and free from the struggles you endured here on Earth. I will miss you always.

“ *Saying I will miss you is an understatement. This does not seem real to me , right now I can not accept the fact that you're gone . My daughter keeps knocking on the door looking for you asking you to let her watch tv with you , my son there are just no words I can even say about him , I still keep calling you down for dinner . 🥺🥺🥺🥺
🥺 I'm thankful we got to spend these last 2 weeks together , thank you for always being there for me because I put you through some crazy rides in this life as you did me , but I'm thankful for everything we went through together and I'm so very thankful for God giving me a friend like you . I love you Daniel J .Guida that is 1 thing that will never die . Sleep In Peace . I know your mom was waiting for you .*
