“ Dear Baginsky Family. My deepest sympathy at such devastatingly sad news. I have many fond memories of Dave from family BBQs and events, but also his visiting me in New York in the late 1980's and us going to a jazz bar because he said he loved jazz. And how grateful I was that he and his Mom joined us for my daughter's performance in her thesis play at Princeton in 2009. He had a memorable smile and a generous laugh, and I always enjoyed our conversations. In the rare times I've seen him as an adult, I remember marveling at how much he came to resemble his wonderful Dad, my Uncle Al. I'm sad that he's no longer with us. My love and condolences to you all, Maryanne Clair
