“ Dad, this past month has been the hardest thing I've ever had to face. Lizbeth understands, and even though she still gets very upset, she tells me every day how she is going to tell Guy all about Pop Pop. I have been struggling with it a lot lately, but i know that you are there. When it gets really hard, a song will come on that makes me smile, or the kids will do or say something that you would. I miss you so much, and love you even more ❤️ your sweetie pie

“ *Dave,
This is so hard to write and we don't know where to begin...
You were the best big brother a sister could have ever asked for.
We have so many wonderful memories of you... of us, that we will cherish in our hearts forever. We know that it was time for you to go and we are okay that you have moved on. Please know that we love you and we will carry you in our hearts... until we meet again.
Your loving sisters, Cathy, Patti and Barbara*

“ What is there to say? David was one of the kindest, gentlest human beings I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. He was the best brother-in-law, and I never heard him speak one bad word about anyone. He never complained about any of life's hurdles. He was a great husband to my sister, and the best father. I am sad that he is no longer with us anymore, but happy that he is embarking on another journey with far less struggle. My deepest sympathies to Debby, David, Kevin, Christina, and Tiffany. My prayers that God will watch over all of you.

*-Love,
Laurie*

“ Dave was my first "in-law" when I was only 15 and he became my second big brother. Dave was kind, giving, compassionate, protective and had a great laugh. I loved him immediately and never stopped. He was a loyal, devoted and loving husband and the very best father and grandfather. I will never forget you my second big brother! Scott and I want to convey our deepest sympathy to Debbie, Chris, Tiff, Dave and Kevin. We love you very much and will keep you all in our hearts and prayers. God bless!
