“ What can I possibly say about my mother? She was my best friend. Anytime I had a problem I would go to her and she would know just what to do. She lived a life of class and dignity, a great mother, wife, daughter and friend. she was taken from us way too soon. I miss her every single day and struggle every day to understand this. But I know she is at peace and isnt suffering anymore. I remember going on drives with her to stores and what not and I just remember having so many laughs and talking to her about my problems she always had the answer no matter how big or small the problem, and shed find a way to make me laugh.

I would like her to be remembered for her warmth, compassion, and her strength. Up to her final breath she was still concerned with others, she would ask me if i was hungry or thirsty. that was just the way she was. An excellent role model and person to model myself after.

Mom, if your reading this, which i know you are.

I LOVE YOU I MISS YOU I WILL NEVER EVER FORGET YOU

Life ain't always what it seems to be Words can't express what you mean to me Even though you're gone We still a team Through our family I'll fulfill your dreams. What a life to take What a bond to break I'll be missing you.

I LOVE YOU MOM

“ Cliff-(Nick)to me. Debbie will always be Happy. What an honor to have known her, a woman who truly lived up to her name! She brought such joy and laughter with just a touch of naughtiness. So many hours I spent laughing with her online. She was so very special we all just fell in love with her in Bigfour! Her putting together the "hen" scrapbook-what a wonderful irreverent sense of humor-our kind of woman! She was loyal, and a true delight. I can only imagine what she was like in "real" life. Happy was bigger than life in our league and we loved her for it. We all have a huge hole in our hearts, I know how big yours must be. Please know that the Bigfour family prays for your family and how much we appreciate you sharing her with us. It was worth every minute. I know she would want you to remember the good times and to not waste time on grieving too much because she was ready to be with her God. You will all be together again one day. You Nick must be such a special man too for there is no way she could have been so Happy without you-please come visit us when you are ready. It was an honor to have known her even if just for a short while. Share that love and laughter she taught you all, don't let it go to waste. My prayers and thoughts are with you all.

“ *When all is said and done and everybody is gone, that's when it hits home. Your alone,your numb,nothing seems real,accept the pain of losing your soul mate, Debre.
Your mind filled with memories, living those moments over and over as if it were happening at this present time.
I'll bet you can hear her talk, I'll bet you can hear her laugh, I'll bet you can feel her love I'll bet you !
memories of 31 years you and Debbie were together, breaks your heart in more pieces then all the grains of sand on a beach.
You lived for Debbie, she was your life, your soul mate, you will never be the same again,
Because part of you is gone forever, unfortunately that is the price one pays for having loved so deeply.
Nobody can ease your pain, nobody can can say the words that will make you forget this tragedy, and nobody can give you a happy future, nobody!
Accept God Almighty!
Only God can ease your pain, only God has the words to get your through this tragedy, and only God can guarantee your future happiness,
COME TO ME All you who are weary and heavy-burdened and I will give you rest.... I am gentle and humble of heart Matthew II
You know Debbie would not want to see you unhappy, she does not want to see you broken hearted.
For now grieve,in time God will make you whole.

“ We would like to express our deepest sympathies to Debbie's family. Known to us as Happy, her name matched her personality. We, at the Bigfour League, are better people to have had her in our lives. Her memory will live in our hearts forever.
