

Debra J. Weaver

December 3, 1955 - August 18, 2023

Debra J. Weaver (nee Moore) “Debbie” on August 18, 2023, of Bellmawr. Age 67. Beloved wife of Richard S. Weaver. Mother of Brad Clifford (Jessie) of Clarksboro and Alyssa Clifford (TJ) of Audubon. Step-mother of Patrick Weaver (Cami) of Maryland and Jennifer Arcolesse (Butch) of Swedesboro. Sister of Lynne Howard (Jim) of Bellmawr, Pennie Messaros (Paul) of W. Deptford, Jackie Gallagher (Mike) of W. Deptford and Doris Barry (Mark) of Collingswood. Grandmother of Makenna, Travis, and Wesley. Step-grandmother of Nicholas and Kimberly. Great-grandmother of Luna. Also survived by her Aunt Bo Zdon (John), her previous husband Michael Clifford, her sister-in-law Deborah Clifford, and many other close family members and friends.

Debbie's vibrant life was filled with love and connection. Her lifelong career as a court reporter brought her great fulfillment. She found enjoyment in the tranquility of her Florida home and floating in the pool. She enjoyed the crisp taste of an ice cold Coors Light while picking and eating crabs for hours with her family. She also loved music, dancing, cruises and the shore. Debbie's warm heart, kind smile and infectious enthusiasm led her to create friendships wherever she went. Known for her selflessness and willingness to help others, she touched countless lives with her generosity. Above all, her most cherished role was that of Mimi to her grandkids, as she treasured every moment spent with them. Her legacy lives on not only in her actions but also in her heartfelt message to "SPREAD KINDNESS," a sentiment that adorned her email signature and continues to inspire those who knew her.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend a viewing Saturday, August 26th, 2023, 9am to 11am in The Chapel at BOUCHER FUNERAL HOME. Memories will be shared at 11am Saturday in the chapel of the funeral home. The family has asked that everyone wear their bright and summery "Florida" clothing to the services! (Shorts are ok)

“ We were so sorry to hear of the loss of Debbie. What a beautiful person she was. I personally have known Deb for many years through our dental office but considered her a friend, we had a lot in common and I always looked forward to seeing her. I know she struggled with her health for many years, but she was always smiling. Please take comfort in your many happy memories, I hope they carry you through this difficult time. Most Sincerely, Susan Barbano and the staff of Dental Arts Group.

“ How does one even say goodbye to an aunt who has been there her entire life? Aunt Debbie was just pure sunshine, love and light wherever she went. She would go out of her way to really get to know someone and care about their lives. She was selfless, doing so much for so many and never speaking a word about it. She was funny and a joy to be around. Her smile was clearly so beautiful, but it was her laugh that was infectious. Even though sometimes I did, she never forgot to text or message just to see how life was going because she genuinely cared. I only wish I had a million do-overs. She was an incredible mother, Mimi, wife, ex-wife, aunt, cousin, daughter, etc. Anyone who crossed her path at any time was touched by her former. No one could forget Aunt Debbie. ❤️ I will miss you all of the days of my life. It's not goodbye because I'll be looking for the signs.
“Grief never ends... but it changes.
It's a passage. not a place to stay.
Grief is not a sign of weakness. nor a lack of faith.
It is the price of love.”
