

Delores Agnes Ruple

June 25, 1932 - August 4, 2024

Delores Agnes Ruple (née Petreshock) of Wenonah, NJ (Oak Valley), passed away on August 4, 2024, at the age of 92. She leaves behind a cherished legacy through her four children: Franklin James Ruple, Frank William Ruple Jr., the late Robert J. Ruple, and Christopher Ruple. She was the dear grandmother of Christi, Valarie, Eric, Ashley, and the late Heather, as well as the great-grandmother of ten and the great-great-grandmother of three.

As the matriarch of a military family, Delores cherished her time living and working abroad. She had a distinguished career as an industrial engineer with the Department of Defense and served as a personal assistant to high-ranking officers in the Panama Canal Zone, showcasing her exceptional administrative skills and cultural adaptability.

Known for her strong will and direct manner, Delores had a clear vision and a steadfast commitment to her beliefs. She enjoyed traveling, bird watching, theater, playing card games with her grandchildren, and engaging in conversation about politics and her global experiences.
