“ I have so many wonderful memories of Deloris. Too many to mention. I can only thank her for her kindness, laughter, and loving ways. She welcomed me into her family and helped me grow. She took care of Salli and me when we would get into mischief and wouldn't squeal to Mr. Marchese! Her laugh was infectious and her personality always bubbly. My condolences to her family. May she Rest In Peace.

“ What a blessing it was to know and work with her. She was a loving wonderful woman with a twinkle in her eye. She was so kind to all who crossed her path. She will be sorely missed. I will surely treasure my memories of her always.

“ I loved Deloris. We had many laughs on the many trips we took with our husbands, Hawaii and a play weekend in NYC. I have missed her greatly in the last years. My heart is broken. The present weather reminded me of our NYC trip. The high was 17 degrees. We made it home just missing a snow storm that paralyzed the city. I will miss her until I die. ❤️

“ It's so very hard to say goodbye to my mother. She has loved and protected me fiercely my entire life. She was always the one who could comfort me no matter how old was. She and I could always find a reason to laugh. Some of my fondest memories are of my aunts and cousins playing cards. At some point we would have to stop while we would laugh uncontrollably.

My mother once told me that I was the only thing that was completely hers and the best thing she ever did. I know she sacrificed for me and loved me with all her heart. I will miss her deeply. Even though she didn't remember me at the end of her life, she always knew I was someone she loved. Mom, I will keep my cherished memories of you forever. And I know you will always be walking by my side.

My thoughts and prayers are with all of the schomber family. I had the honor and privilege to be in her life in the last year. In that short time although she was different then the what so many remember , her heart and Spirit still shone bright enough for all of us at advanced subacute. She was deeply loved by yet another extended family. She will be missed.

My daughter Erika and I had the joy and sheer pleasure of being Deloris's hairdressers these last few months. She was a beautiful woman and we were honored to have been at her service. No daughter was more loving and devoted than you Sally, God bless you to be strong and remember all the good times the precious memories. You and your family will stay in our prayers. Love Melissa and Erika
