

Dolores Nourse

December 22, 1934 - October 28, 2020

On Wednesday October 28 2020, Our Mother Dolores Nourse (nee Taylor) of Collingswood, formerly of Deptford. Better known as Lori to friends and family at the age of 85 moved peacefully into the arms of those who were waiting for her. Lori is survived by her children William Nourse and his wife Diane. Caring and devoted daughter Lori J. Nourse and son Wayne Nourse and his wife Kathy. Preceded by her son Steven Nourse, sister Julia Stavola and her mother Gladys Hankins.

MomMom to Dawn, Stephanie, Billy, Justin, Wayne, Katie and Amanda.

MoMMomMomMom to many sweet great grandchildren.

Auntie Lori and best friend to Joan Novak and Suzie Nichols.

Lori loved good food, reality tv shows, The young and the restless, Scrabble, Yahtzee and Patsy Kline. She was very funny and had a super quick wit about her that never failed to leave you laughing. More than anything Lori loved to be with her family. Her boys Trooper and Bo will miss her warm comforting lap and her tender touch. Lori was a strong woman who when faced with adversity she took it on the chin and kept on moving through it, never giving up. She raised 4 children as a single parent and showed us the way. She will forever be loved.

Services private at the convenience of the family.

“ I'll never forget my cousins coming over to visit and us hiding in her car in the back seat whenb they got home! Also, putting panty hose on our heads and flying around the basement on 1 roller skate, bc we didnt have full sets. So many happy memories with my wonderful Aunt and cousins. God bless you all in this difficult time. Until we meet again. Love, Tina
