“ My sincere condolences to the DiLaurentis and Hirsch family in the loss of their dear love one. May you know that you are not alone in your grief. God has provided a resting place for your love one where he will suffer no more the cares of this world. God picked a beautiful flower that He loved dearly from earth and planted it in His everlasting garden of life. Earth has NO sorrow that heaven can not heal.

Praying for strength and comfort in your hours of sorrow for today and days to come,. know that He is with you and He Cares for you.

Dominick is just away he is not gone and we will see him again in that Great Getting up Morning.

*In prayer

“ I don't know your son but I too lost my daughter in September who was the same age. My heart breaks every time I see another young person succumb to this terrible disease. Although we are strangers, please accept my deepest sympathy. I will continue to fight to get better treatment for our children. Too many of us have had to bury our child.
