“ Judy and children, my deepest and truest heartfelt condolences on the passing of one of the finest gentlemen I have had the pleasure to know and work with. Don was one of the nicest and most considerate people I have ever known. He made me laugh so many times at work and he was just a joy to be with. I know the he is with the Lord, he only accepts the best. Deepest sympathies, Cheryl McClintock

“ Mr C , when I met you I thought this man is the true meaning of what a real man is a loving husband and an amazing father and all around great guy . You treated like a daughter and that was amazing because I never really had a father and I loved you so much for that . You will truly be missed but never forgotten ❤️❤️

“ From the time we met Mr. C he was larger than life. He would not have wanted to be thought of in that regard but nevertheless its true. He protected us and helped us and we're forever grateful. Then as teenagers and twenty somethings he was a mentor with advice and knowledge to be listened to. Val and I love the man as a friend and family. We are forever grateful and flattered that last Christmas eve he took the time to stop and see us. I feel we have a true bond with Don. I hope he still will keep an eye on us all. RIP Mr. C we love you.

“ My early memories are of one of the kindest men when I was a little girl he never went a day without saying hello and asked how I was. Rest in piece.

“ Don was one of my favorite neighbors. I'd be walking my dog in the morning, and he'd yell, "Yo, Bill, co'mere." Then I'd listen to him for the next ten minutes with my dog collapsed on the pavement. And I loved every minute of it. Don was from the "old school" who put his best into everything he did. He maintained his garden throughout the year, wearing only a T-shirt. When I first moved here nine years ago, I told my wife, "You should see this old guy up the street. He's got muscles, no stomach, and moves three times as well as I do." Don was a straight-shooter who told it like it was. I consider myself very grateful for having known him. He was a fine human being who added joy to my life. May God hold Don in His loving arms.
Goodbye, friend.

“ Mr C was the dad I always wanted. Living across from him for all of my childhood years and some. He gave me an opportunity to work as a teamster and always showed love and respect to my wife and kids. To say he was a great man does not do him justice. The memories I have will always have a special place with me. His memory will not soon be forgotten. If resting in peace is what happens to us at the end , then Mr C will break that trend when he gets there and he will want to do improvements as whatever he touched became better. Thank you for leading by example, with love and respect , Bob, Anna, Tiffany and Bobby Tripodi
