“ Mom I will miss you dearly and will cherish the times we shared. I am so happy that you were able to make it to my graduation, it meant the world to me!! I thought we had more time but apparently God had other plans. Forever in my heart, Trish

“ To the Kling and Brown women, please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of Dottie. I have wonderful memories of our families living up and downstairs from each other. We had many a wild night of hard card playing together, long talks, and watching our kids grow up together. R.I.P

“ Aunt Dot, You will be missed by all who knew you. We prayed and continue to pray for you to be a part of our lives still as a guardian angel. We will continue to share all of your stories so you will never be forgotten. Every time we say Merry Christmas you will be on our minds. May God continue to bless you until we meet again. I love you!

“Dot, I struggle to find the words to write, that will make everything alright, You fought a great fight and we were all so proud of you, but God called your home. Now you suffer no more. You have left many memories to get us through. Now the hole in my heart will be filled with memories of you. I love and miss you so much.

“Dot, This is one of the hardest things I have ever had to go through. I know how much we fought and argued when we were kids, but as we grew, so did our love for one another. You were such a huge part of my life, that I don't know how I will go on without you. I love you so much!!! I feel like my heart has a huge hole in it! You fought a long, courageous battle, and for that, I am so proud of you. I love you!!!! Susan PS..Looks like you were the boss! Susan

“Aunt Dot, You are so missed already by everyone!! I can't seem to gather that you will no longer be around. It is very hard for me. You were the nicest, kind, caring person out there. You never judged anyone and always told me no matter what you would always stand behind my decisions that I make whether good or bad. Please watch down on us and gather everyone the strength to get through this. Watching Christmas Story will not be the same but will always remind me of you. Love always Missy
