

Edmund Franklin Ireland, Jr.

October 29, 1928 - April 15, 2009

View Edmund's Video Tribute Edmund F. Ireland, Jr. "Reds" on April 15, 2009 of Woodbury. Age 80. Beloved husband of Phyllis E. (nee Jackson). Father of Jack Ireland (Tracey) of N. Carolina, Eddie Ireland of Woodbury, Chris Ireland (Jennifer) of W. Deptford, Rick Ireland of Woodbury and Jacqueline Ireland of Deptford. Brother of the late Jack Ireland and Thelma Kaval. Grandfather of Steven, Nicole, Madison and Brittany. Great-grandfather of Zachary, Ryan, Tyler and Aubree. Mr. Ireland was a WWII Navy veteran and enjoyed fishing, the outdoors and spending time with his children and grandchildren. Relatives and friends are invited to attend a memorial service Monday 1pm at BOUCHER FUNERAL HOME, 1757 Delsea Dr., Deptford. The family requests no flowers. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the family.

Tribute Wall

“ Edmund Franklin Ireland, Jr.

November 27, 2022 at 03:45 PM

“ *Little POP POP,
I miss sittin on your lap watching wrestling.. even though my mom didnt like it.. and all the candy you use to sneak to me.. I am gonna always remember all of the stories you told me and all the things that we got to do together.. Even though you are not here I still think about you everyday. I miss you and love you
Your boy..
Ryan*

Ryan Meraw - June 17, 2009 at 08:56 PM

“ *Chris & Family'
Sorry for your loss. We have you in our prayers. Respectfully Caryl & Jack*

Caryl & Jack Culver - April 22, 2009 at 11:34 AM

“ Ed, Sorry for the loss of your father,my prayers and thoughts are with you and your family.

Sharon Ramer - April 20, 2009 at 08:30 PM

TE

“ Dear Jackie and family, Please accept our sincere condolences on the passing of your father, grandfather, great grandfather and husband... Jackie, we are all thinking of you all and just know you are in our thoughts and prayers! xoxox Love, Tracy (from Lifetouch) and Mike Eberst

Tracy & Michael Eberst - April 20, 2009 at 05:47 PM

ZA

“ Little Pop Pop, I will be saving a candy bar for you... so the next time i see you ill have it in the brown paper bag so we can share it.. I promise I will not splash to much water out of your pool this summer and don't worry I'll help my mom build that center consile for her car... The next soccer goal i make will def be for you .. Love you and miss you... but only until i see you again... xoxox love zack

Zachary - April 20, 2009 at 02:00 AM

TY

“ Little pop pop you are my sunshine and I am sending you all the biggest hugs in the world that you love... I will always wear my bandanna and ride my chopper like OCC., just like you like me too!!! I miss you forever and will follow in your footsteps to be a wonderful man like youxoxox

tyler - April 20, 2009 at 01:52 AM

GC

“ Although I never had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Ireland, I feel I know him because of Jacqueline. The way her face lights up whenever she talks about her dad tells me he was a very special man indeed. My heart and prayers are with you and your family.

Georgi La Cava - April 19, 2009 at 09:32 PM

WF

“ Aunt Phyllis, the boys and family, we're sorry for the loss of Uncle Reds. He was and always will be a character in his own right. He was always helpful when asked, joking when needed and special in our hearts. He was the "favorite" uncle of Wayne, Jr. There are over 50 years of great memories of Uncle Reds-but especially appreciated and remembered were the 60's and early 70's when Wayne Jr. and his 4 cousins-Reds sons-would be together for a lot of stuff. Pool parties and gatherings with Zeke and Roberta, the Philly crowd, June and Tommy still bring smiles to Wayne Jr's face. Then there are the countless years of Maryland visits (1980's to present) and hours of card playing, get togethers and big picnics with Wayne Jr's mom and dad (Reds' sister/brother in-laws.) The annual potato party brought Uncle Reds and "that Jersey crowd" down to us and we could always see a "happy-to-be-here attitude from Uncle Reds. And we also saw a man also happy to be a grandfather. Of course, his other half-Wayne Jr's favorite aunt-will miss her husband for many years to come. But we must all not dwell on Uncle Reds passing but to rather celebrate his life and how his life affected each of us in even small ways. Uncle Reds was a unique person of his own right. He will be missed, but never forgotten. Love, Wayne, Jr., Jackie, Jayne, Lyndsie, Justina

Wayne Jr. and family - April 19, 2009 at 08:05 PM

JA

“ jacqueline Ireland sewell April 17, 2009 12:25 AM Someone once told me... its not the two numbers that you have assigned to in life signifying birth and death are important, it is the DASH in between those two numbers that is the most important thing... And I am not sure if my tears may never run dry.. and the memories may ever fade away and the stories you tell me will ever stop replaying in my head because i will hear ur laugh in my heart forever... but there is one thing I do know.... A few things about that dash you have there .. although I may have only been in it for a short 32 years, for you not so long.... but me forever... and in that forever you have showed me and taught me so much . SO... for me your dash is very important... this is what made you MY HERO ... love your sweetheart... xoxo

jacqueline - April 19, 2009 at 12:59 PM

JF

“ Friends forever .

Jeanne Kelly & Family - April 19, 2009 at 11:07 AM

JC

“ Investment in people we care about is the only legacy that has the power to endure beyond a lifetime. Mr Ireland has left his spiritual legacy and love to last eternal and fully ALIVE in our hearts. My condolences and love go out to family and friends.
Lord I ask for your compassion and love to flow through the family and bring comfort and peace among them. God be their provider in time of need. In Jesus name I pray. Amen!

Jennifer Castelluccio - April 18, 2009 at 08:56 AM

AI

“ poppop, i love you and your always with me in my heart, xoxoxo il miss you i had fun being with you.

aubree ireland - April 18, 2009 at 01:01 AM

NI

“ poppop; you never failed to put a smile on my face. im really going to miss your jokes and storys the most, and your laugh. im going to miss you holding my hand tight and calling me lovebug. there is so much i want to say but cant seem to find the words. il never forget you sneaking all us kids candy when mommmom would tell us no. and you being up bright and early in the morning reading the paper. i wish i could of spent more time with you, but i know your in a place with no pain and your looking down on me, i love you poppop xoxo. love your lovebug

nicole ireland - April 18, 2009 at 12:41 AM

DW

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all! I am so sorry for your loss! Mr. Ireland was full of smiles that i will never forget! He was such a hard worker, and just a great man! You know i am just down the street if you ever need anything! Love, Denette and family

Denette White - April 17, 2009 at 03:24 PM

MI

“ I will miss you poppop so much. You are the best.
xoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxo
Love your smiley girl Madison

Madison Ireland - April 17, 2009 at 03:12 PM

JS

“ Dear Phylis and Family,
Know that I am with you in spirit as the commute is a little tough. I know Reds would understand but have some off hand remark to make me feel bad. We would have a good laugh over it and go on. One thing for sure he would always like to jab you and have a big laugh over it. Many a day when I was living in Mickleton and he was helping me finish or repair something we would end up laughing about something one had done to the other. Always there when I needed him which was appreciated. Since leaving the area he has come to mind many times but as we know never kept in close contact. Know that I am with you in my prayers.
Love, Jimmy Sholders

Jimmy Sholders - April 17, 2009 at 01:31 PM

EP

“ Oh how sorry we are to hear the news. We remember all the happy times with Reds. Swim parties in the back yard with lots of kids and dogs. Especially the hot summer night laying on the livingroom floor watching the first Moon walk. Aunt Edna and Uncle Edmund were so proud of their sonReds could build or fix anything. How excited he was to finish the attic for the boys. All our love and prayers,
EJ & Tom

Elva Jean Petzak - April 17, 2009 at 01:04 PM

LP

“ Rick, Jackie and Family, I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. I wish there was something I could do or say that would take your pain away. You will always have all of the memories and your family to help with each passing day. Know that if you need me, I'm here. Don't hesitate to give me a call or drop me a line if you need anything. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers. ((hugs))

Lisa (Lewis) Potter - April 17, 2009 at 09:54 AM

