

Edward J. Lamb

July 23, 1970 - May 28, 2022

Edward J. Lamb “Eddie Speghetti” on May 28, 2022 of Berlin. Age 51. Son of the late George Lamb and Elizabeth (nee Hillanbrand). Loving brother of George Lamb (Marianne) of Mantua, Helene Urban (Michael) of Wenonah and Joyce Kennedy (John) of Glassboro. Survived by several nieces and nephews.

Eddie was our Angel on Earth and now he has gained his wings in Heaven. Eddie always brought smiles to everyone’s faces as his smiles and laughs were contagious. *You will truly be missed, your smile and that laugh of yours made many smile and laugh. You fought the fight from the day you were born to the day you left us, you gained your new wings in heaven. You left many great memories and I smile when I think of you and all your antics- like running in our house getting the cookies and milk, you knew where Aunt Dee and Uncle BULL had the cookies in the cabinet. The magazines, books and anything with Mickey Mouse went into your backpack/book bag. As you looked through the books and magazines hearing you laughing and rocking. Visiting you in the hospital and bringing you cookies gave you the brightest biggest smile, calling me DEE DEE and me saying no Ed I'm Linda and the smirk and smile you gave me, 'cause you knew I was Linda and not Dee- always teasing me. . The love you gave and the fight you fought in life overcoming so many obstacles, seizures, sickness, fighting and coming back when they said you couldn't. Eddie they didn't know you, your fight, strength, love and giving so much. Everything was on Eddie's terms and you ruled!!!! I bet the stairs to heaven were filled with family and friends meeting you and bringing you to heaven. Give the family a hug from your family down here. Rest easy and fly high with your wings.
All my love your cousin LINDA*
