“ Mom, I love you so so much it hurts. I will miss you more than I can say. But I know you are at peace with Daddy. He needs you more than I do. Our time together this past year was very special. You are the strongest woman I know. I was honored you allowed me to be there when you needed me. Rest now, no more worries. Look over me and steer me straight like you always do. As you say, a mother keeps a family going and you kept ours together. True love never dies, it just carries over. Fly high with Daddy and continue your love story. Until we see each other again—-Kelly

“ So sad to hear of the passing of a most kind and caring women that I had the pleasure of knowing! She was in my life since I was a young teen and has never left it! I spent most of those years at her home and learned a lot of life’s lessons from her. She was like a second mother to me, always letting me stay there if I needed. There are to many memories of her to count, but they will always be in my heart! Up until this day I have always called her mom and Mr. Bram dad! She will be sorely missed but will now be at peace with her beloved Harry! Love you both!💕💕
