

Elena Carmen Ortiz

May 4, 1998 - April 1, 2025

With extreme sorrow we regret to inform you of the passing of our beautiful daughter and sister Elena Carmen Ortiz Born on May 4, 1998, and passing away on April 1, 2025. She was a 2020 Graduate of Chestnut Hill College in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Graduating with the Honor of Magna cum laude and member of the following sororities (Alpha Lambda Delta) for high scholastic achievement as a freshman, (Epsilon Pi Tau) youngest ever and first Hispanic to be accepted into this international Honor Society for technology, (Delta Epsilon Sigma) for maintaining a career GPA of over 3.5 for junior and senior years. She had her Internship with Honors at the DeSales police department located on DeSales University Campus. With never ending dedication and work ethic was a member of too many Honor societies and receiver of too many awards to list.

Elena was a devout animal lover with the inclusion of her current 6 fur babies and throughout her lifetime took care of over a dozen various animal species and loved them deeply. She was a master of most media technologies and there was no issue too big or too small that she couldn't handle. With her meticulous nature and dedication to excellence, her efforts were unmatched. Elena with our broken hearts, undying love, and blessings sore with the eagles, fly with the angels and finally be free. We send you all of the love in our bodies, your brother Emilo, Mom, Dad, Grandfather Gaspar Diaz and family and friends.

Services Private.

Arrangements by BOUCHER FUNERAL HOME, Deptford.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Emilio to take care and maintain Elena's fur babies, 193 Nathan Hale Dr., Deptford, NJ 08096.
