“ Betty---Thank you for all the laughs and good times we shared over lunch. You never had a problem telling us what you liked or did not like to eat. It was such an honor and privilege to have had that special cousin time for all these years. You will be in my heart until we meet again. May your soul find peace and joy. Loving you forever, Judy

“ Aunt Betty, well she and I were very close over my growing up days but she was very close with many of us. As a stay at home Mom she was always there for me and many others when needed. We would laugh together, cry together but most of all we had fun together! I will miss her terribly. And a very fond memory I have ok she and I is when we went to David's bridal, to find her a dress for her 25th wedding anniversary and renew of their Vows, it ended up being a all day affair but we had a blast!!! REST EASY MY DEAR AUNT AND SAVE ME A CHAIR AT THE TABLE💔 TILL WE MEET AGAIN. LOVE DOLORES 🙏🙏🙏❤️❤️❤�

“ I only got to be with Miss Betty for a short period of time as her caregiver, companion and friend. She shared stories of her life and her love of coffee and Krimpets . It truly was an honor and privilege to have known her even for a short time.

“ Aunt Bet was our favorite short lady we had the honor of knowing and loving. She opened her heart and home to everyone. She was always having Uncle Hart take her to make sure someone was okay. She has a huge heart and will always be in our's forever!
